

Hunter Wildlife Festival

Sunday 27th March 2011

Proudly brought to you by the
NATF^{Inc} Wildlife Rescue Service and Newcastle City Council

WHAT'S ON

Children's Activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Whose Scat's That? <input type="checkbox"/> Creepy Crawlies <input type="checkbox"/> Crazy Cockatoo <input type="checkbox"/> Colouring Corner <input type="checkbox"/> Pouch Painting <input type="checkbox"/> Feathers <input type="checkbox"/> Puppet Show <input type="checkbox"/> Face Painting 	Children's Activities: Children are kept busy and entertained with educational focused interactive activities from matching scats with their owners, packing mealworms for wildlife in rehabilitation to craft activities such as colouring pouches for orphaned wildlife. Face painting is available throughout the day and the puppet show operates twice during the Festival.
Wildlife Encounters: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Flying Foxes <input type="checkbox"/> Gliders <input type="checkbox"/> Reptiles <input type="checkbox"/> Orphaned Young 	Wildlife Encounters: Throughout the day visitors can encounter wildlife up close and learn more about their behaviour in the wild. NATF^{Inc} Wildlife Rescue Service's educational flying foxes, reptiles and gliders entertain visitors and are always a popular drawcard. An opportunity to watch orphaned young being fed is dependent on wildlife in care at the time of the Festival.
